I understand that I am working with Laura Blundo for professional coaching at the agreed fee. I am paying this monthly retainer by check prior to the beginning of the month. We will have standing scheduled times each week by telephone or meeting in person, as deemed most useful. Additionally, we may have other interim contact though limited exchanges by telephone, vmail, email, or for review without additional charge. If there are special circumstances or events that require significant time or an additional session, we can renegotiate rates. All information will be held as confidential unless the client requests otherwise in writing. Professional Coaching is distinctly different than counseling, psychotherapy, and psychoanalysis, and does not deal with the diagnosis or treatment of emotional problems. I am not under the medical care of Laura Blundo, and she is not acting as a Psychiatrist or Psychoanalyst in this collaboration. Since Professional Coaching does not constitute medical consultation or treatment, any healthcare insurance does not apply.

These fees may be considered deductible business expenses. If you need to reschedule your appointment Relationship Awakenings policy is that you must reschedule with in 24 hours of your appointment or you lose your session. You need to reschedule within the same week of your weekly appointment or session is lost. Special circumstances can be addressed if need be.
